FAX-ON-DEMAND SERVICES

PR Newswire has created a wide range of "Suggested Packages" that are ready-to-use, economical fax-on-demand services. For more information on our "PR Classic", "IR Classic", "Agency Classic" or other available packages, please contact your local PRN bureau. These "Suggested Packages" have no set-up fees. Monthly fees range from $300 - $400 plus telecommunications charges.

PR Newswire also offers completely customized fax-on-demand services that can meet any need. Quotes are available on request.

International Delivery Prices for Broadcast Fax and Fax-on-Demand services available upon request.

STOCKS ON-CALLSM

Stocks On-Call stores all releases of public companies for 72 hours and provides access to investors, money managers, media and the public through a toll-free number - 800-578-7888. Free with US1 or US2 distribution. With any other distribution, $15.

COMPANY NEWS ON-CALLSM

Company News On-Call provides immediate access to all of your company's news releases on the Internet and by fax-on-demand. It's the fastest, most effective and cost-efficient way of fulfilling requests after your release has been transmitted. For only $100 additional, we will link your Web site to PR Newswire's site for one full year.

Stores 12 months of news releases for $350 per quarter.

QUARTERLIES ON-CALLSM

Public companies can save time and money by putting their quarterly report summary to shareholders on PR Newswire's Quarterlies On-Call service. The information is accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week on the Internet and through a toll-free number which can be publicized in the annual report, company literature or simply given to callers through the investor relations office.

Stores 12 months of quarterlies for $350 per quarter.

DATABASE/ONLINE SERVICES

Every release that is transmitted by PR Newswire is stored in more than 100 U.S. and international databases and online services including LEXIS-NEXIS, America Online, Dow Jones News/Retrieval, CompuServe, Prodigy and Dialog. Since PR Newswire is recognized as a leading source of business information, these services are accessed daily by individual investors, analysts, academics and researchers.

INTERNATIONAL SERVICES

PR Newswire serves virtually all countries worldwide through a variety of national and special package distributions to the general press, trade press and the financial community.

PR Newswire's 1996 International Pricing Schedule is available separately.

1996 DOMESTIC PRICING SCHEDULE

PR Newswire is the acknowledged leader in the distribution of corporate, association and institutional information to the media and the financial community. Since founding the industry over 40 years ago, PRN has been its innovating force, providing a constant stream of enhanced newswire and fax services to professional communicators.

Many NewsLine options are available to suit a variety of needs. The most widely used NewsLines are:

■ US1: This comprehensive national service conveys your information to all of the important newspapers, wire services, magazines, and radio and television stations.

■ US2: A scaled-down version of US1, US2 provides distribution to the major media across the country.

■ Regional NewsLines: The Northeast, Southeast, West/Southwest and Midwest NewsLines provide regional depth when national reach is not required.

■ State/Local NewsLines: PR Newswire provides extensive coverage to every state. Local NewsLines targets major metropolitan areas for news aimed at a more narrow audience.

A complete list of media points is found in our latest Distribution Directory available from your local PR Newswire bureau.

THE FAST LANE TO HIGH TECH TRADES

Distribution to high tech trade publications is an important part of your strategy and PR Newswire has the vehicles to get you there:

■ The Newswire: Your release is sent simultaneously to the major high tech trade publications through our dedicated network. PRN has the most extensive list of high tech trades to ensure you the widest reach possible.

■ E-mail is Waiting: A growing number of high tech reporters are online and are receptive to information through e-mail. PR Newswire will be pleased to distribute your news to the e-mail addresses of journalists who prefer to receive it that way. This is an excellent way to reach major, top-tier editors at general business publications as well as the trades.

Bloomberg, Dow Jones, and Reuters. Then, all appropriate business-related news releases travel by way of PRN’s proprietary Investors Research Wire (IRW). The IRW brings your company news in-house to tens of thousands of institutions, analysts, brokerage houses and portfolio managers. The IRW is included with all domestic NewsLines at no additional charge. PR Newswire’s International IRWs transmit to important financial audiences in the global financial community.

■ OTC/IRW: PR Newswire’s extended OTC/IRW service gives NASDAQ-listed and OTC Bulletin Board companies access to the full IRW. Your releases appear on the screens of subscribers through Quotron, Telerate, Track Data, CompuServe and other information vendors through OTC NewsAlert. In addition, distribution encompasses other key OTC media.

A complete listing of outlets can be found in the PRN Distribution Directory.

EXCLUSIVE FAX-ON-DEMAND SERVICES — ALWAYS ON-CALL®

PR Newswire's On-Call® services are state-of-the-art, innovative fax-on-demand solutions to automatically fulfill information requests. Stocks On-Call®, Company News On-Call® and Custom 800 On-Call® streamline the high tech communicator's job. For example, we'll store on our computers background company information, and the full text of the press release to assist a new product launch. PR Newswire then assigns your company a toll-free 800 number. When you are swamped with requests for information, callers can be directed to the "800" number to receive answers through our automated fax-on-demand service.

Immediate access to your information is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. The only requirements for access are a fax machine and a touch-tone phone. The quality of the document is superb since your information is transmitted via the first fully digital fax operation. Text, logos, charts and photographs are sent with astoundingly high resolution.

PR Newswire facilitates fax-on-demand for specialized needs through these On-Call services:

■ Custom 800 On-Call®: Ideal for customized fax-on-demand applications. With Custom 800 On-Call, you store any kind of information — general or financial, tables, quarterly filings, product specifications, promotional materials, price lists, graphs or earnings. It is ideal for crisis communications, too.

■ Quarterlies On-Call®: Provides a fax-on-demand alternative to the costly mailing of quarterly report summaries to shareholders.

■ Company News On-Call®: With PRN's Company News On-Call, all of your press releases are stored for a full year. Simply refer inquiries to your private database — an 800 number with a dedicated extension number. Company News On-Call is available by fax or on the Internet at PRN's site. The service includes monthly usage reports. Company News On-Call is available for an annual fee.

■ Stocks On-Call®: Private investors, money managers, brokers and the public have direct access to the full text of your news release — free and instantly — by calling 800-578-7888. The availability of Stocks On-Call is advertised in financial media, including Investor's Business Daily. Your full news release, as transmitted over PRN's NewsLines, is given additional exposure at a nominal cost.

For a demonstration of the 800 On-Call services, call 800-PRN-FAX-4 (800-776-3294) or your local PRN bureau.

BROADCAST FAX TO YOUR TARGETED AUDIENCE

PR Newswire has developed one of the most comprehensive broadcast fax operations designed for corporate communications. PRN's telecommunications equipment and proprietary software assure the fastest and highest quality transmissions in the industry.

We will maintain your lists on our systems. Turnaround time for your documents is quick. Used by hundreds of our clients, many of whom have the technology to fax on their own, our system transmits many millions of fax pages a year.

WORLDWIDE CONNECTIONS

When your projects require links that reach around the world, PR Newswire stands ready to enlist its international news distribution network. With special agreements in Canada, Latin America and Eastern Europe, and affiliate organizations in Asia, Western Europe and the Pacific Rim, PR Newswire will reach your target audience virtually anywhere.

Special packages to trade or regional publications are available and translations are often included in the price. Our most popular international choices include:

■ Tri-Continent High Tech Trades: This service brings your news to the trade publications in North America, Europe and Asia. Regional distribution is also available.

■ Canadian High Tech Trades: Through Canada NewsWire, the largest Canadian press communications service, we provide the most comprehensive access to the growing list of computer trade publications. Outstanding service is consistent, as Canada NewsWire is owned in part by PR Newswire.

■ Pacific Rim Pack: Extensive coverage in the Western United States, Australia, Hong Kong, China, Singapore and South Korea can be targeted through this service. Accurate, culturally correct translation is provided.

■ Latin America: All of Central and South America are available through PR Newswire's connections south of the border. The copy of PR Newswire members goes directly to Reuters' editorial computers. Translation in Spanish and, upon request, Portuguese, is included in the price.

■ Europe: Western Europe is blanketed by PR Newswire media distribution in all countries. Special financial and major city packages are available. In Russia and the CIS, key audiences — publications, institutions and influential political bodies — are reached through ITAR/TASS, the leading Russian news agency. Through PR Newswire, your translated releases are distributed to more than 1000 media points, as well as government ministries, libraries and research centers.

Contact your local PRN representative who can tailor special packages for your targets.

PRNEWSFOTO

A picture is worth a thousand words — a cliché, but a truism, nevertheless. Through PRNewsFoto, PR Newswire offers its members the ability to distribute high quality photographs to more than 300 key newspapers, including The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, USA Today, and the Chicago Tribune. It can be used to accompany corporate personnel changes, picture new products, depict graphs and statistics; disseminate corporate logos and graphics, or highlight feature stories.

Just as your news releases are available through online databases, so too are your photographs. For one year following the release date, photographs are automatically stored and accessible to newspapers, retrievable directly to their electronic dark rooms. Wieck Photo DataBase is the online service that archives your photos alongside those of The New York Times News Service Photos and Agence France-Presse, among others.

THE BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

PR Newswire offers a full complement of media relations services exclusively to its members.

Media Coffees: PR Newswire members are invited to attend frequent regional and local forums. These gatherings, a free service to our membership, give public relations practitioners an opportunity to meet prominent editors and hear practical information and tips.

At recent coffees, members have met with editors from The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, the Los Angeles Times, Reuters, Bloomberg and Knight-Ridder. Editors from trade publications, including Wired, Electronic Entertainment, PC Week, Infoworld, and Computer Life also have been available to members through PRN's Media Coffees.

High-Tech Hot Wire: As a complimentary service to members, PR Newswire provides high tech communicators with a subscription to High-Tech Hot Wire. This twice-monthly newsletter contains important industry information — media personnel changes, tips from editors, reporters' requests for information and the latest in innovative high tech marketing tactics.

Member Services: The staff at any of our 20 bureaus nationwide is always accessible to discuss your needs. Additionally, regional high tech experts can help you map and execute a strategy to meet your objectives.

Media Relations: PRN stays abreast of changes on the masthead, behind the scenes and on the air. All bureaus constantly check our distribution lists for accuracy. For more than 40 years we have been a staple in newsrooms — news from PR Newswire gets seen, read and used because of the quality of our members' copy and our relationships with the media.

All The News: PR Newswire's Today's Headlines provides subscribers with a menu of headlines from the high tech news stories of the day and the full text is available in seconds by fax. Information includes new product announcements, financial data and other important news from hundreds of organizations.

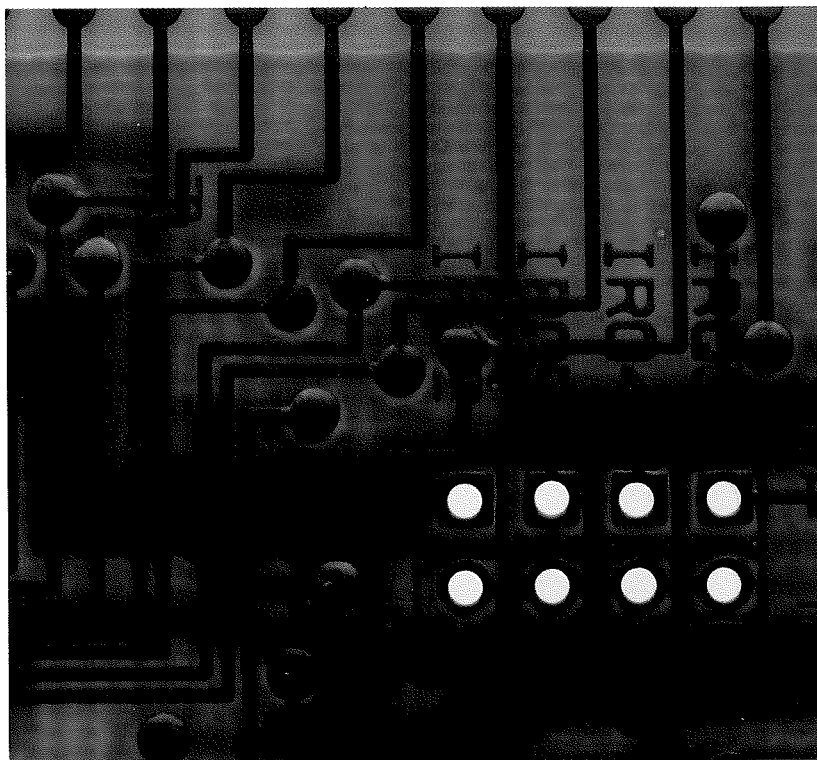

Information is drawn from PR Newswire, AP Alert, Knight-Ridder/Tribune Business News and First Call. Upon request, full text news stories are available by fax in seconds.

An exclusive PRN bonus to subscribers of the "computers/electronics/telecommunications" category are stories from the Newsbytes News Network featuring the hottest news in the computer industry.

Trade Show Presence: As the acknowledged leader in high tech trade news, PR Newswire is enlisted by several show management companies to assist the press room operations during trade shows. This opportunity teams PRN staff with some of the most influential high tech reporters. On-site availability also facilitates the dis-
